

Upper Earl – 2088 Earl St.

Rossland Heritage Home Inventory

1) Address: 2088 Earl St.

2) Property Description: Block 26, Lot 23

3) Common or Historical Name: Not available

4) Date of Construction: Circa 1900

1st Owner: Mining Engineer

5) Early History: Not available

6) Design, Style, Architecture, Architect:

Architectural style is a High Victorian in the Stick Style.

7) Description of Home:

- 1 storey with an attic and a basement
- Exterior walls are wood
- Foundation is concrete
- Roof is cedar shakes

8) Interior Layout and Features:

- Fireplace with original oak wood and Scottish tile
- Original glass cabinets in pantry
- Original bay windows

9) Alterations/Restorations:

- Ceilings lowered from 12 ft. to 9 ft.
- Porch was constructed in the 1950's

10) Other Information: The engineer who constructed the house worked in one of Rossland's Mines. This home was the first home of J.D. MacDonald (Superintendent of West Kootenay Power and Light Company) upon his marriage.

11) Other Owners: Kirsten L. Bird and Matthew Henry, the current owners.

Additional 2013 Photo

Detail

1983 Photo